Chapter 1-Introduction

1-1. Uniform- Cadets taking part in the event are required to wear Class A Dress Blues. Females are required to wear pants.

1-2. Purpose- The purpose of the Hall of Fame color guard is to provide an opportunity for community service for cadets. It also provides an opportunity for the battalion as a whole to interact with the city community.

1-3. Preparation- Prior to the event's execution, the color guard commander and deputy will find four eligible cadets to take part in the event. These cadets must having training in color guard regulation drill and ceremonies and must be disciplined and trustworthy.

Chapter 2- Arrival/Departure

2-1. Arrival Area/Time- Cadets are to arrive at the Science Hill High School auditorium at approximately 1215.

2-2. Entrance- The participating cadets will arrive at the auditorium entrance.

2-4. Departure/Time- The color guard will be over by approximately 1325.

Chapter 3- Color Guard

3-1. Arrival Area/Time- The color guard will begin at approximately 1300.

3-2. Uniform- See Chapter 1 Section 1

3-3. Entrance- The color guard cadets will stand at the left side entrance at the beginning of the event in a line. Once a cue is given by the speaker (i.e. "Please stand for the presentation of colors"), the color guard will carry colors and move to the front of the auditorium. The color guard will face the audience and present to colors for the pledge.

3-4. Posting- This event requires that the colors be posted. The carrier of the American and State flags will order colors and about face. They will then march towards the posting stands located on either side of the stage. The cadets will place the flags into the stands, and the commander will give a signal for him/her and the other cadet to about face. The two cadets will then march back to their positions in the color guard.

3-5. Exit- The color guard will exit by the left side of the auditorium.
